Usual League activities carried on beginning with the girls' Big and Little Sister picnic in September. This function and the Christmas Dinner were planned by Big and Little Sister Chairman Lindsay Tainer. Vice-president Randy Nickelsen was in charge of the annual Sadie Hawkins dance.

Boys' and Girls' League jointly sponsored a school visitation and assembly program on March 21 by seven foreign exchange students attending school in the Portland area. Another joint project was the annual Mothers' Day Tea.

Student Council action on March 27 made membership in both Leagues voluntary effective immediately.

These girls, currently enrolled in Portland area high schools, performed at the Mothers' Day Tea on May 10.

Students Prepare for Future

"Activity" was the key word for FTA. During the past year, members of this organization were kept busy sponsoring such programs as the childrens' story hour, cadet teacher training, and the weekly spudnut sale. Members also had an opportunity to attend both the state convention in November and the regional convention which was held in Cascade Locks. In April, members visited several schools in the surrounding area.

With the assistance of the JV and Frosh squads, their activities began with the organization of the Booster Parade in September, followed by the football season.

The Homecoming weekend started off with the bonfire and sockhop, both planned by Rally. Throughout the basketball months they gave signmaking parties and generally boosted both team and school spirit.

The first band concert of the year was presented jointly with the chorus on November 10. Featured in this concert were selections from "Porgy and Bess."

This years band officers were Gene Jones, president; Leo Keizur, vice-president; Pat McCormick, first semester, and Joan Berndt, second semester secretary-treasurer; and Karen Burger, librarian.

Sports

'67 Season Begins Slowly. . .

Jim Hadaway receives most valuable player trophy.

Football prospects did not look too bright for Hood River this year as the team opened the season by losing the first three games. With only five seniors, the young Dragons managed to hold their own against an experienced Scappoose squad, losing the opening game 7-13. Undaunted, they traveled to Clatskanie and were again handed a 7-13 defeat. Their spirits dragging, the Blue Dragons faced a tough Near-Kah-Nie team. They were bowled over in a 6-34 loss.

Pulling the pieces together, the fighting Blue Dragons came back in fine style beating the Rainier Columbians in the fourth game 2-0. They followed the close but important victory by defeating Seaside 8-0 on their home field and Concordia 18-8 in a home game.

Now the Portermen faced their toughest opponents--the first ranked Royals of North Catholic. They beat the Royals in every statistic except the score, losing 6-23. Homecoming provided the needed inspiration and the Hood Riverites walked over the Warrenton Warriors 19-6 in the last home game. The final game ended in a disappointing 13-28 loss, ending the season with a 4-5 record.

Pep Parade Begins Year

Activities of 1967-68 began with the Booster Parade on the afternoon of September 8, complete with band, floats and noise.

Organized by Varsity and JV squads, the parade wound its way through the Heights and ended downtown for a pep rally.

The varsity football squad and coaching staff were presented to the townspeople by Coach Jim Porter, and the crowning of the Booster Belle by Mayor Neilson followed. To conclude the rally, it was announced that the sophomore class had won the float competition.

Dragonettes and Hood River High School Band stand at ease after leading paraders to downtown area for rally and presentation of court.

QUEEN JAN I

Varsity Rally members Sybil Jernstedt, Martha Hackett and Charlotte Smith lead crowd in rousing cheers.

Members of the 1967 Booster Court, blown by prevalent Hood River gales, are Regina Meeker and David Couch, Frosh; Jan Mellenthin and Richard Belt, sophomores; Linda Palmer and John Coyier, juniors; and Brenda Jones and Randy Hill, seniors.

Sadie Goes Western

The foyer of the gym becomes "The Golden Nugget" and provides a chance for grub and a hot card game.

Above, Jim Henderson serves cool sarsaparillas to thirsty dudes, while at left, slow music gives cowpokes and their gals a change of pace.

Bales of hay, stalks of corn, and gear of the old West converted the bareness of the gym into an antiquated barn for the 1967 Sadie Hawkins dance November 4. The "Lower Depths" provided the sound for this Girls' League affair.

Winning the best-dressed girl was Jeanne Hahn, portraying an Indian princess, while "cowpoke" Don Jensen won the male award. Don Baldwin and Randy Nickelsen were chosen as the best-dressed couple.

Intermission entertainment was provided by "The Group".

Homecoming '67

Traditional bonfire sparks spirit!

Dragon spirit comes through in spite of Friday's downpour.

Queen Martha Hackett dubs varsity players while princesses Marge Frigaard and Linda Blankenship look on.

Autumn colors accented the Homecoming scene October 26-28.

After igniting a roaring bonfire Thursday night, students gathered in the gym to watch senior football players crown Martha Hackett Homecoming Queen.

Following the varsity's Friday night victory over Warrenton, Girls' League served cookies and cider to honor alums. Pouring were Mrs. David Jensen, Mrs. Robert Nickelsen, Mrs. John Couch, and Mrs. Doyle Roberts. Heavy rains kept many alums from attending.

Highlighting activities was Saturday evening's dance featuring music by the "Spectrums".

RIGHT: 1967 Homecoming Queen, Martha Hackett.
BELOW: Students swing to the rhythm of the "Spectrums".

'Twas a Holly Jolly Christmas

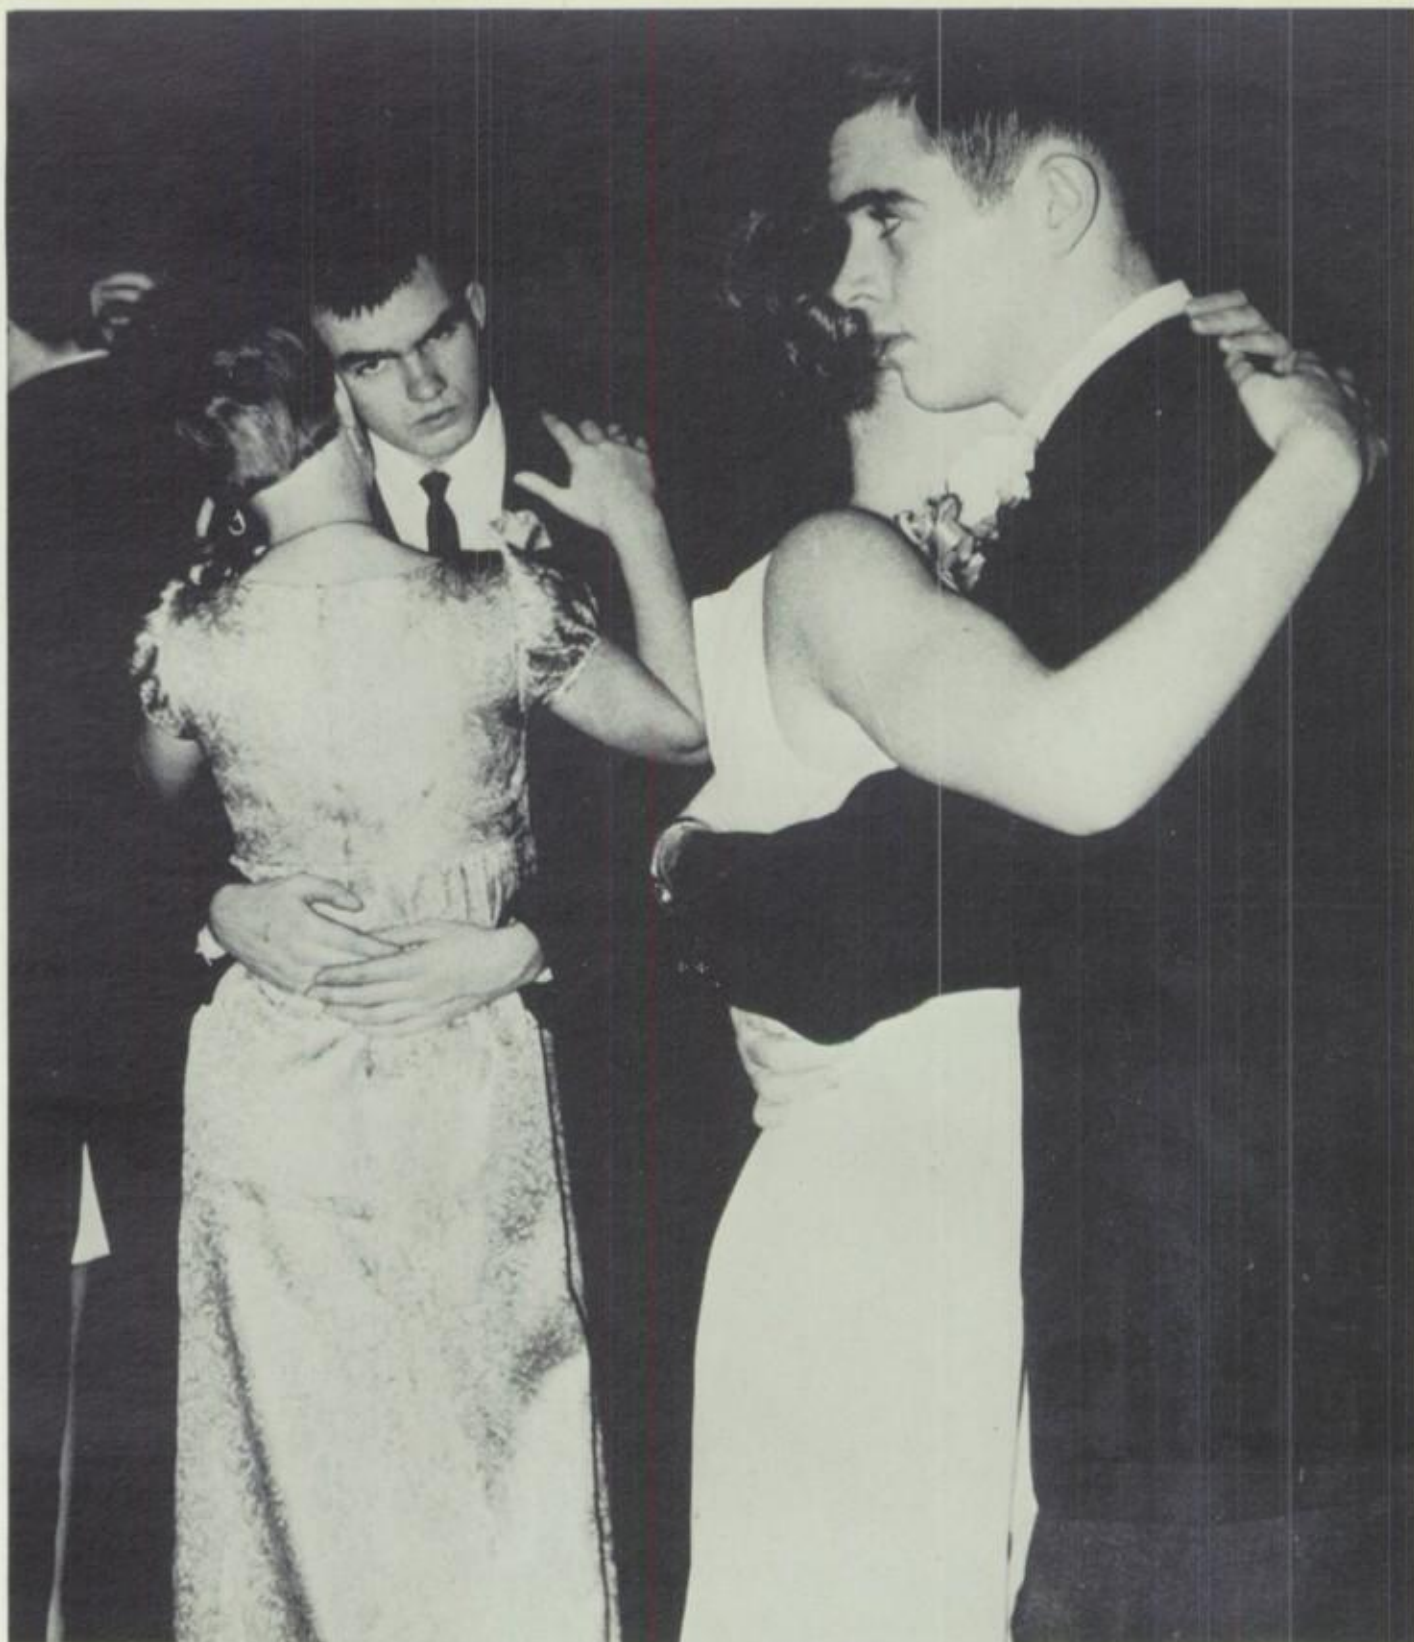

The traditional Christmas tree adorns HRHS main hall and is collection center for the canned food drive. The Frosh won the contest with over 700 pounds collected.

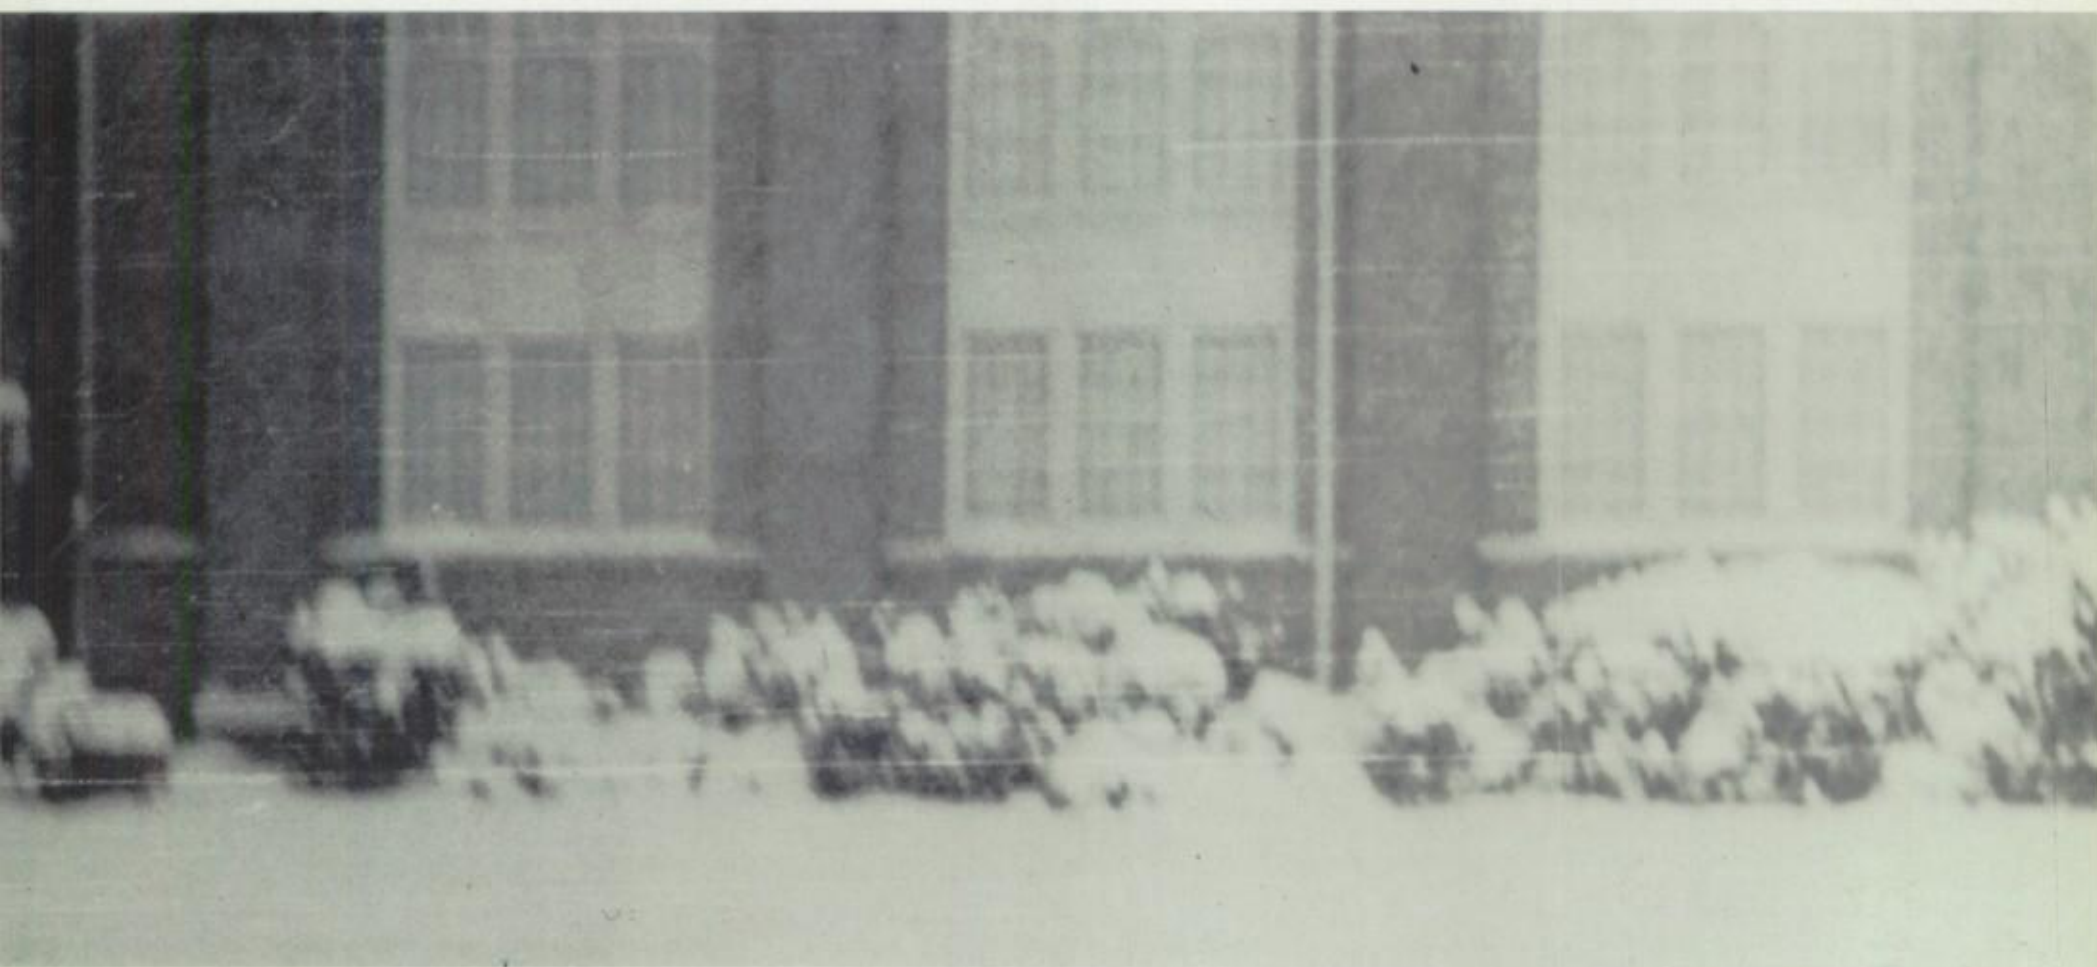

Theme "Incense and Peppermint" sets scene for couples at Christmas Formal sponsored by the senior class and held in the May Street cafetorium on December 2

"Wheel of Fortune" provides music for Christmas Formal.

"House of the Rising Sun" and "As Tears Go By" are favorite tunes for slow dances.

A sudden snow flurry beautifies the school and adds an extra day to the Christmas holidays.

Bob Cratchit and Tiny Tim sing "Gee Up, Little Pony" as the family looks on.

Young Scrooge, Mike Todd, and Isabel, Karen Burger dance a lively polka. The play was presented on Dec. 8 and 9, and was directed by C. O. Krueger.

The Cratchit family sings tribute to Mr. Scrooge with "God Bless Us Every One" in the final act of the ASB play.

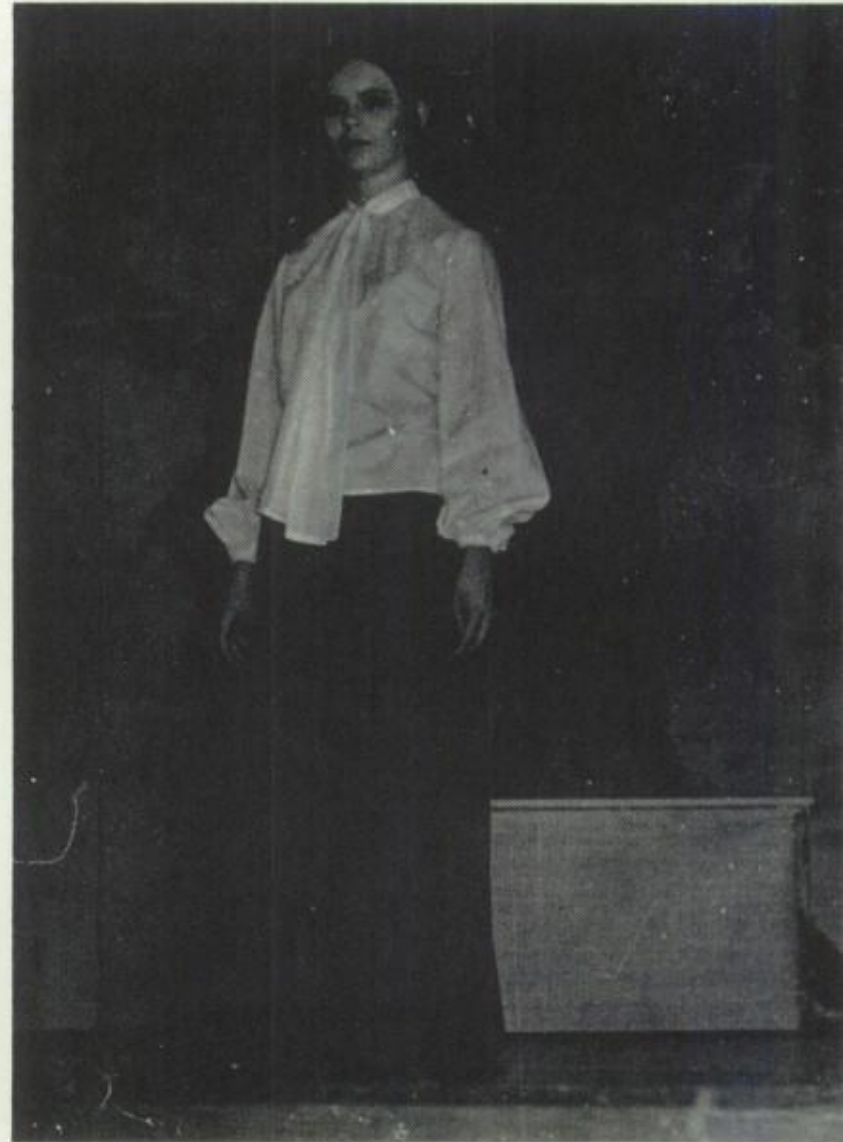

Blanket of white adds festive note to school grounds.

'Anthology' Challenges Actors

The Columbia Gorge Symphony Orchestra performs during intermission of the ASB play presented February 8 and 9.

Actress Kathy Cyrus strikes a pensive pose while telling the story of a departed Spoon River resident.

Four actors, Kent Krueger, Kathy Cyrus, David Foster, and Becky Funk, interpret more than seventy verses taken from Edgar Lee Masters' "Spoon River Anthology" for stage adaptation. Folk singers Karen McCormick and Stan Ray (in background) supplement the verses with songs based on the anthology.

A silver chandelier is featured above the refreshment table.

1967 Sweetheart's Queen Joan Berndt and King John Coyier prepare coronation ceremony.

Somewhere My Love'

Couples enjoy fast music provided by "The Echos" from Portland.

The ice palace from "Doctor Zhivago" established the decor for the Sweetheart's Ball. Silver and pastels set the mood. Miniature balalaikas resting on "snow" centered the small tables edging the dance floor.

Presentation of the 1968 Royalty proceeded to the theme song "Somewhere My Love." Sharon Crane and Dan Diggs were crowned Queen and King, their court being senior princess and prince Sybil Jernstedt and Steve Vaughan; sophomores Jeanine Sturtevant and Bill Burger; freshmen Nanette Paul and Chuck Reed.

Queen Sharon and King Dan accept congratulations from Joan Berndt.

United Fund Nets $161.99

United Fund co-chairmen Gail Weathers and Lindsay Tainer contribute to the cause. The chart shows final class standings with frosh giving an average of 6 cents per person; sophomores, 9 cents; juniors, 35 cents; seniors, 34 cents. The total contribution of $161.99 was collected through slave auctions, dime tosses, a student-faculty basketball game, and a box lunch sale, as well through class competition.

1968 Dream Girl Linda Willey is presented by Carol McDonald Dream Girl of 1967.

The United Fund court is, LEFT TO RIGHT: freshman Sharon McDonald, sophomore Janet Slack, Dream Girl Linda Willey, and senior Roberta Thompson. Princesses were elected by the classes and votes were purchased at 2 cents each or 2 for 5 cents with proceeds going to United Fund.

Ten Rank Top Scholastically

Perusing college catalogs in the familiar surroundings of the guidance office are these seniors who topped the class in accumulated grade point averages. From left are Charlotte Smith, Kathy Cyrus, Roberta Thompson, Lindsay Tainer, Tom Leslie, Ron Vanover, Scott Gaulke, Sybil Jernstedt and Nancy Duckwall. Not pictured is Kristi St. Amant.

Doone -

You're my bestest buddy and I hope we stay that way for a long time to come. We've been through a lot together and I hope we get to go through a lot more cause it's really been fun no matter how much trouble we've gotten in. It's really neat that you've started going with Keith this year cause he's really cool but try and ~~te~~ quit playing around with him. (You know where that will get you, don't you?) Be good to him but don't ever forget our true love Bert for me and — for you. Keep trying and he'll come to eventually, if you know what I mean. I hope you will never forget our highschool years and the friendship we have shared cuz I know I won't! It's been one hell of a time. I know this year has been sort of tuff for ~~the~~ you because of all your emotional (?) strains but with your head I know you'll make it through. You'll go a long way in this world, Doone; you've got the stuff to see you through. You've got the greatest understanding I ever seen in a person and I'm glad you're the one I like to talk to when I'm in trouble or just when I need someone to talk to. I could never have asked for a better friend. Your temper is somewhat Irish but I love it any way. Don't ever lose it cause it's one in a million! I have finally decided you are crazy but that's OK cause it's necessary. I know I have said to many nice things so I'll quit for awhile go to Hell! (joke)

Be good to your Mom + Dad; they really love you no matter what you may think. I know you love them too so try + stay out of trouble once in awhile!

Take it easy on Robyn cause she does have one thing in common with you — last names! I'll never forget you and I hope you never forget me. Love always one, you're really

a sweet kid,
too bad we
weren't had a chance to do more things together
this year since we live so far, oh well. Be good now and have fun this summer (stay out of trouble, if you can) Love,
Jim

We haven't really done too much together, but I hope you think of me as one of your friends. If you ever need a friend I'm willing to help any way
I can.

Be good & have fun.

If you can do both)

Love'n' Luck,
BARB

Doone:

I've really enjoyed your company since
I met you. You have a fine personality although you & Robyn don't get along sometimes... it's not your fault though. Whoever or whatever you decide to do
I am sure you will succeed in. Be good & keep it cool. Don't let Keith get you down (not literally). Just remember... keep the faith. baby.
